

^ Full airborne PPE precautions include an N95 respirator (equivalent or higher), gloves, gown, and eye protection

For More Information Including an Up to Date List of Signs/Symptoms:

This guidance is intended for use in collaboration with a service's Infection Control Officer (ICO)

^{*} Actively monitoring means daily symptom and temperature checks (on and off duty) Note: This is interim guidance and is subject to change, current as of June 29, 2020.